Health Promotion Internship
Fall 2020 (Unpaid)

INTERNSHIPRESPONSIBILITIES:

Assist with youth coalition projects, public awareness campaigns and events as they relate to tobacco prevention, and community health events.

Participate with Utah Valley Drug Prevention Coalition.

Conduct outreach and tabling at community events and assist in educating the public of the dangers of smoking/e-cigarettes and exposure to secondhand smoke.

Help strengthen and increase our statewide network, "Déjelo Ya," (includes the Latino community, vested individuals, and relevant organizations).

Maintain social media updates by promoting Déjelo Ya activities, accomplishments, educational information and raise awareness of the quitline and dejeloya.org

Help in any requested translations by the local health departments or Hispanic-serving agencies.

Teach healthy relationships at various locations.

*A $300 stipend may be available by the end of the internship.

OTHERPUBLICHEALTHRESPONSIBILITIES:

- Organize and advertise health events to invite members of the community (opinion leaders, coalition members and the local Hispanic population etc.)
- Assist in teaching health related curriculum to adolescents
- Create social media posts
- Assist in monthly and quarterly health reports
- Assist team with intervention responsibilities
- Offer assistance with other administrative work
- Assisting in planning and implementing community events and attend those events (Can include Saturdays)

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Pursuing a degree in Public Health, Health Education, or related field
- Must be dependable, computer literate, organized, and self-motivated.
- Program activities may require Intern to drive to multiple locations; mileage will be reimbursed
- Bilingual English/Spanish

Interested applicants, please send a resume and cover letter to Abraham Hernandez (abrahamh@centrohispanouc.org) by 5pm on Thursday, March 26.

NOTE: Interviews will be held April 2 and 3. Internship will start when fall semester begins.