Looking for Volunteers to Attend
The 8th Annual Healthcare Analytics Summit
September 15, The Little America Hotel
12:00 – 4:00
(Free Lunch included) 😊

FEATURED SPEAKER

Elana Meyers Taylor

Five-Time Olympic Medalist, USA Bobsled

Elana Meyers Taylor is a five-time Olympic Medalist and the most decorated athlete of color to ever compete in the Olympic Winter Games. She was elected by Team USA to carry the American flag at both the opening and closing ceremonies, becoming the first athlete in history to be named Flag Bearer for both. She will share a stunning story of resilience through childbirth trauma, caring for her newborn son with special needs, isolating with COVID, all while training and competing for the Olympic Games.

What is the Healthcare Analytics Summit

The Healthcare Analytics Summit (HAS) is Health Catalyst's premier industry-oriented event designed to showcase the best thinking and work around healthcare analytics and data-informed healthcare improvement

Help Needed

On the last day of our summit, we usually have some attendees leave early, leaving extra space open in our breakout sessions. Our speakers present better when they have a more full, energetic audience.

We need volunteers who would like to learn more about important healthcare topics and would be willing to attend two specific healthcare sessions to better support our speakers.

What you'll get

We'll give you a brief training and a free lunch from the Grand America Hotel. Then you'll be assigned to a group to attend two breakout sessions of the Healthcare Analytics Summit

See Elana Meyers Taylor

Then you can join all of us for our final keynote speaker, Elana Meyer Taylor, the most decorated athlete athlete of color to ever compete in the Olympic Winter games including winning a medal in this last Olympics at the age of 37.
