BYU Global Health Internship Program
The World is Our Classroom
Communicating with Family and Friends Across the Political Divide

We are conducting a study to assess communication skills and political polarization among university students in Utah.

Participation in this study will take a maximum of 30 minutes spread over one week. During this time, you will complete:

- Two 5-minute surveys
- One 20-minute Zoom conversation with another student on a political topic

Participants will receive one $20 Amazon e-gift card via email upon completion of study.

Click here or scan the QR code to learn more about the study, indicate your interest, and see if you qualify to participate. Make sure to read the consent form at the beginning of the survey carefully.

The minimal risks associated with participating in this study are similar to those encountered in normal day-to-day life.

Location
All study surveys and conversations will be administered online via Qualtrics and Zoom.

Are you eligible?
- 18 years or older
- Current undergraduate student at either BYU or the University of Utah
- Complete the intake survey to see if you qualify to participate in the research

If you're unsure if you meet the requirements, call or email a member of the study team:

Internships
Huntsman Cancer Institute (HCI) at the University of Utah is seeking applicants for the Community Outreach and Engagement (COE) Internship program. Selected interns will join established teams devoted to creating long-term solutions to prevent and screen for cancer and improve the health of individuals, families, and communities. Interns will engage in program planning and design; community health needs assessment activities; equity, diversity, and inclusion efforts; community and patient health promotion and education; HCI training efforts; community health and screening events; coalition work; professional development; personal projects; and with many other teams and projects to receive a broad perspective of community engagement work.

Eligibility & Commitment:
The COE internship is for graduate and undergraduate students.
Graduate Internship: 15 weeks, 20 hours/week (300 total)
Undergraduate internship: 15 weeks, 10-15 hours/week (150-225 total)
*Interns can expect 50% of their internship to be done virtually/remote

Application & Internship Timeline:
A new cohort of interns is accepted 3 times per year:
Spring Internship: January – April (Applications due November 1)
Summer Internship: May – August (Applications due March 1)
Fall Internship: September – December (Applications due July 1)

How to Apply:
Interested students should email the following items to: community@hci.utah.edu
- Current Resume including current schoolwork
- Cover Letter that includes the student’s goals and expectations of the internship
- One letter of recommendation from an employer, professor, or mentor. Letters can be sent from the student or the letter writer

If you have any questions, reach out via email at any time.
