BEING PEACEFUL IN CONTENTIOUS TIMES

Sponsored by American Studies, Office of Civic Engagement, and BYU Campus Conversations Project

How do we follow President Russell M. Nelson's admonition to be peacemakers? How do we see and treat others as fellow children of God even when they hold views we consider wrong? Come learn how to engage in peaceful conversations across political, moral, and cultural divides.

5 MAR 2024 | 5 PM | 250 KMBL

Come eat empanadas while watching the film The Basement Talks, a documentary about Pro-Life and Pro-Choice Bostonians coming together in love in the aftermath of a tragic shooting. Followed by a brief training session on civil conversation techniques.

Special Guests: The Basement Talks filmmakers, BYU alumni Sarah Perkins and Josh Sabey

Internships

Paid summer internship opportunity (great opportunity for EOH students!)

Field work including entomology, ecological & environmental applications. Also laboratory work involving things like efficacy and resistance studies, assays, surveillance, identification and testing.

Listing is found on Handshake!

offering a paid internship for the summer of 2024. This role is based in Houston, Texas, and spans a full-time, 12-week period starting mid-May 2024. It's an excellent chance for individuals to immerse themselves in global health program management, operations, and implementation, covering key aspects such as monitoring and evaluation, social media, fundraising, education, and training. The focus is on tackling health challenges in low-resource settings, making it an invaluable experience. Importantly, this position is open to graduate students with no prior experience in the field required.
